EXPERIENCE

Red Argyle, Canandaigua N.Y — Software Developer

Spring 2018

I was responsible for building and prototyping custom components for Salesforce. Work included but was not limited to Visualforce pages, lightning components, apps, widgets, and troubleshooting APEX triggers.

itClix, Pultneyville N.Y — Junior Developer

December 2015 - May 2017

As a Junior Developer at itClix I was responsible for building and maintaining Wordpress sites to meet clients needs. Basic iOS Technology training, custom vinyl decal design and cutting, and video production projects.

PROJECTS

Little Loop Coaster — Automation with Javascript

Little Loop is a k'nex coaster that is completely automated with Javascript. Using Firebase, Node.js, Johnny-Five, and an Arduino I built a website that could control the coaster, track its total trips, time per run, and status in realtime. The full project is available for viewing on my GitHub.

Experience Adaptech — Interactive green screen mirror

Experience Adaptech is a browser based experience designed for trade shows to let potential customers try on a dynamic camouflage jacket and change the background to a variety of environments. This helps potential customers see how the jacket looks in different hunting situations.

Bang Expansion Pack — Card game expansion scenarios

Bang Expansion pack is a javascript simulated scenario generator for this popular card game. The players select a pack and randomly flip through a game scenario for that round.
